

All programming is subject to cancellation due to inclement weather.

Programs are Free with Paid Entrance Fees

Inks Lake SP Programs (September)

Guided Hike

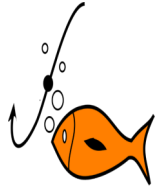

9-10am every Saturday except 9/24

Join a park ranger or volunteer on a .2 mile hike down to Devil's Waterhole to learn about native plants and geology. This hike is one of the easiest and most accessible in the park and should be appropriate for all ages. Meet at the trailhead.

Fish with a Ranger

10:30-11:30am 9/10

Meet a park ranger or volunteer at the North Fishing Pier and learn to cast a line and about the fish in the lake. All the equipment and bait is included!

Underwater Discovery

10:30-11:30am 9/3

Meet a park ranger or volunteer behind the Park Store to see what we can catch! We will hopefully be able to learn about minnows, sunfish, crawfish, and other aquatic life.

Special Programs

Reading Ranger

Join Ranger Jamie to read "Senorita Mariposa" and do some crafts!

Sunday September 4th, 10-11am in Central Park (Inks Lake State Park)

Tuesday September 27th, 10-11am at the Herman Brown Free Library (Burnet)

"Changing Minds One Hike at a Time"-Friday September 9th 1:30-2:30pm

Join Ranger Jamie at the Kingsland Library (125 West Polk Street) for a presentation about Inks Lake State Park and some of the interesting plants we have at the Park.

Constitution to Nature -Saturday September 17th, 11am-12pm, Central Park

Join Ranger Jamie to learn about U.S. history and Oak Gall ink, & maybe even try your hand at old-fashioned ink and feather quill writing!

The Weary Woods-Saturday September 24th, 10-11am, Central Park

Come listen to Camille Wiseman (a Woodland Ecologist from Texas A&M Forest Service) speak about various threats to our Oak trees. Appropriate for all ages!

For more information call: 830-637-9327